Departure for Bari. Meeting point in Via Vallisa 81 at 10.45 with the professional guide. The excursion in English, French, Spanish. German is even scheduled at 2.45 pm. Ancient crossroads of the Mediterranean Sea, Bari has the typical atmosphere of the seaside town, shaped over the centuries by different civilizations where St. Nicholas and the Cathedral are among the most consistent examples of Apulian Romanesque. Tour ends at Nonna's House where you will see how they make orecchiette, the local home-made pasta, and find out the secrets of its traditional recipe. Drinking genuine Primitivo red wine, you will taste the home-made pasta feeling like a native. The excursion lasts 2 hours and can be a walking tour or it can be followed by bike or by rickshaw. Eventual free afternoon at leisure for shopping along the streets between Via Argiro and Via Dante where the most glamorous Italian fashion stylists like Prada and Cucinelli, Gucci and Etro decided to set their trendy boutiques. It is necessary to book the visit at the reception.
