ICREDITS PH LEONARDO D'ANGELO VIAGGIATE IN PUGLIA

Meeting point in Martina Franca in Piazza XX Settembre with your professional guide to stroll around the cosy streets of the old town for 2 hours. Martina Franca is in the eastern hills of the Murge plateau, equidistant from the Ionian and Adriatic seas. Its name is derived in part from its devotion to Saint Martin, who saved the townspeople from enemy invasions, and in part from the time when Philip of Anjou offered the local inhabitants a tax exemption ("franchigia" in Italian). The town, one of the most densely populated in the Taranto province, is a melting pot of history and art. Highlights of the historic centre include the characteristic white houses that wind their way up the small, twisting streets, and the sumptuous baroque architecture of the Ducal Palace, Palazzo Martucci, Palazzo dell'Università, Palazzo Motolese, Palazzo Maggi, and Palazzo Ancona. The important Basilica of San Martino, with sculptures by Stefano da Putignano and Giuseppe Sammartino, is also inside the town's medieval walls. Entrance fees to site of interests are to be paid on the spot.
