COLLECTION

TCE081

A gastronomic stroll through the heart of Polignano, discovering Apulian cuisine and quality shops, alongside Flavia, our FOOD EDUCATOR and cookbook author and taster who will teach our clients how to shop like a "local". An itinerant masterclass to explore local products (PDO, DOC, Slow Food Presidia) different from an street food walking tour so not suitable for kids under 12 years old. The tour begins at 9:30 in the city's literary café and continues with visits and tastings at pastry shops, exclusive delicatessens, and gourmet boutiques, discovering iconic pasta filata cheeses, artisanal charcuterie, and award-winning extra virgin olive oil. A stop at the covered market is a must to understand Apulian cuisine and seasonal produce, local seafood, and the dried fruit stand. The tour continues with a visit to a wine shop, with a tasting of a glass of indigenous wine, and concludes with the famous "special coffee," enjoyed in one of the most beautiful squares in the historic center. The tour ends at 12:30. The approximately 2-hour excursion covers 2 km and is conducted on foot, in English. The minimum number of participants is 2, up to a maximum of 6. French-speaking tours available for a minimum of 5 people. No children under 12.

Estimated activity time: 2 hours approx.

Every Wednesday and Thursday from March to October at 9.30 am _ booking notice 72 hours
