

Team Beat EXPERIENCE MICE

RODA BRASILIANA

TCM208

Among the most dynamic and challenging activities, the simulation of a high - energetic drumming band of Brazilian inspiration, immediately boosts the confidence and the cooperation of the team getting everyone working together. As for the Brazilians the Roda stands as a symbol of popular unity, this activity of 1 h and 30 minutes is lead to foster team buildings mechanisms (teamwork, ensemble music, instrumental sections, individual responsibility, team support and listening capacity). Sessions are themed to create a simple compelling rhythm: Team Members will start by learning the basics of their assigned instrument and then learn to make rhythms together playing as an ensemble. There is even a session of body percussion and a brief vocal piece so to prove their capacity to maintain their role and responsibility in the choir as at they should do at work. A real involving and emotional experience which leads to a fun final performance which demonstrates the synergy of the group showing that individuals working together in harmony deserve success.

The activity can be executed in outdoor spaces or indoor meeting room in case of bad weather with a minimum of 15 participants up to 50 pax split in two different groups or in two subsequent sections during the day. A director of the Roda and all different sorts of percussion instruments are included in the quote.
